NEW DEAL CITY BANKRUPTCY ACT RULED INVALID

Supreme Court Handed Administration New Blow This Morn

Washington, May 25.—(AP)—The 1934 municipal bankruptcy act, passed by a New Deal Congress, was held unconstitutional today by the Supreme Court.

The five to four decision, delivered by Justice McReynolds, concluded:

"The challenge to the validity of the statute must be sustained. Justice Cardozo, Chief Justice Hughes, and Justices Brandeis and Stone asserted 'the statute is constitutional.'"

The majority differed with a ruling by the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals upholding the legislation.

Took Property Lawlessly
The law was challenged by certain bondholders of the Cameron county, Texas, water improvement district number one. They contended the act took property without due process of law and violated states rights.

The legislation was intended to aid cities, counties and other political subdivisions reduce their indebtedness through Federal bankruptcy courts.

Bondholders attacking the law owned approximately one-tenth of the $800,000 bonds outstanding.

Offered Half Value
They said they were offered only 49.8 per cent of the face value of the obligations under the reorganization plan.

The Southern Texas Federal District court held the act invalid and dismissed the debt refunding plan. It required a $400,000 loan from the Reconstruction Corporation.

Under the legislation, the agreement had to be approved by the Federal court and a majority of creditors ranging under certain conditions from 66 and 2-3 to 75 per cent. The act recently was extended to 1940.

Railroad Not Guilty
In another decision the court ruled today that the Elgin, Joliet & Eastern Railway Company had not violated the interstate commerce act by carrying products of other United States Steel subsidiaries.

In a six to three decision delivered by Justice McReynolds, the court affirmed a ruling against the government by the Northern Illinois Federal District Court, Justice Stone, Cardozo and Brandeis dissented.

The lower court held the government failed to prove the carrier was dominated by United States Steel and that "the evidence fails to show that the defendant has any interest in the articles or commodities which it transports for the subsidiaries of the Steel Corporation."

The act made it unlawful with certain exceptions, "for any railroad to transport in interstate commerce any article or commodity manufactured, mined, or produced by it or under its authority, or which it may own in whole or in part, or in which it may have an interest."

The litigation was caused by transportation of products of International Steel, American Bridge, American Steel & Wire, United States Steel, United States Coal & Coke, Universal Atlas Cement, National Tube and other corporations.

Arizona's petition for permission to sue California and five other states for a final determination of water rights on the Colorado river was denied.

U. S. Not Made Party
Counsel for California, Nevada, Utah, Colorado, Wyoming and New Mexico had urged denial of the petition on the ground Arizona lacked a legal cause for action. They said there was "nothing more than a potential controversy" and that Arizona had failed to make the United States a party to the litigation.

Arizona replied that it was facing an "irretrievable loss" because of huge California appropriations.

CONVICT-KILLER IS PUT ON TRIAL IN JOLIET COURT

State to Ask Chair for James Day, Loeb Killer

Joliet, Ill., May 25.—(AP)—Bailiffs turned away a throng of the curious today as James Day, 23-year-old Joliet penitentiary convict, went on trial for the razor slaying of Richard "Dickie" Loeb, in a prison bathroom.

Loeb was killed Jan. 28, twelve years after the "Loeb-Leopold case" shocked the nation. With Nathan Leopold, Jr., like himself a brilliant son of millionaire parents, Loeb killed little "Bobby" Franks in Chicago "for a thrill."

With highly sordid testimony promised, Judge Edwin L. Wilson's Circuit court room would not seat the crowd which turned out. The 100 veniremen called as selection of a jury began took most of the available space.

Day was in civilian clothes. He was expected to plead that he killed Loeb in self-defense. In a long confession released after Loeb's grisly death, from 56 razor slashes, Day said Loeb attacked him after Day repulsed perverted advances.

The two fought nude in the steaming shower room, Loeb's death brought about a statewide investigation of Illinois prisons.

Recessed Until 1:30

Twenty-five of the 100 prospective jurors pleaded excuses. After recessing several judges, Judge Wilson recessed the trial until 1:30 P. M. (CST.)

First Assistant State's Attorney

Walter O. Herschbach, who with assistant Charles J. McKeown is prosecuting the case, said he would demand death in the electric chair for Day and was prepared to qualify each of the jury for the death penalty.

Attorney Harold Levy of the defense said Day would be called to the stand with his assertion that he wrestled the razor from Loeb and killed him in self-defense.

Demanding Trial

Levy and Attorney Emmett Byrne, his associate in the defense, recently combatted State's Attorney William R. McCabe's motion to quash the indictment against Day, with leave to reinstate. The defense demanded that the case be "tried or dropped."

Day's acquittal, Levy contended,

would make Day eligible for parole. He said that Day has already served three years of a one to ten year sentence, and that "he would have been out of the penitentiary on parole before this killing if he had had a job on the outside."

Warden Joseph E. Ragen, however, declared "Day will serve out his sentence until 1943 regardless of the outcome of this trial."

Day was sentenced in 1933 for

grand larceny from Chicago.

THREE INDICTED FOR EXTORTION PLAY: NEW YORK

New York, May 25.—(AP)—Two indictments charging attempted extortion, growing out of the Alfred E. Smith, Jr., case were returned today by the court grand jury naming Max D. Krone, private detective, A. Henry Ross, attorney and Ernest Desmond De Hagen, known as "Lord Desmond."

The indictments were filed with

General Sessions Judge Morris Keogh.

They charge an attempt to extort $5,000 each from Pietro Arta concert violinist, of Brooklyn, and Anna Graef Drouillard, a stenographer employed by a Park Avenue textile firm.

Both Krone and Ross were named

in an earlier extortion indictment in a complaint made by Smith. Marie Pavelick, who figured in the Smith case, was a witness before the grand jury prior to the return of today's indictments.

The other witnesses were Arta

and Miss Drouillard.

Harold W. Hastings, assistant

district attorney, instructed Police Lieut. James J. Finn to send out a general alarm for Desmond.

Rockford Couple is Denied Divorce by Ark. Supreme Court

Little Rock, Ark., May 25.—(AP)—The Arkansas Supreme Court refused today to sever the marriage ties of Willard H. Ashton and Mrs. Cora B. Ashton of Rockford, Ill., reversing a lower Arkansas court which had granted him a divorce. It was the third state in which their marital affairs had been in court.

Mrs. Ashton obtaining separate maintenance in Illinois and Ashton suing unsuccessfully for divorce in Colorado. These proceedings, said the Supreme Court today, were a "complete bar" to the Arkansas suit.

LANARK WOMAN THROWN FROM CARNIVAL RIDE

Miss Helen Martin, Lanark, and Mrs. Elvira Burhenn, Polo, were painfully bruised Saturday night, about 11 o'clock, when Miss Martin fell from a ride at the Pan-American carnival grounds, striking Mrs. Burhenn.

Both women were rushed in an ambulance to Katherine Shaw Bethesda hospital where it was found their injuries were not serious. Mrs. Burhenn was still held at the hospital under observation this morning, however.

Mrs. Burhenn was passing the ride when the accident occurred. Miss Martin was hurled about fifty feet through the air when, it is said, a chain that strapped her in the seat broke. In her descent she struck Mrs. Burhenn.

BITUMINOUS COMMISSION NOT EXTINGUISHED

Washington, May 25.—(AP)—Comptroller-General J. R. McCarril ruled today in effect that the national bituminous coal commission was not extinguished by the Supreme Court decision invalidating the Guffey coal contract act.

The Comptroller-General said present appropriations to the commission for salaries and other expenses would still be available for such purposes.

He based his ruling on the majority opinion of the court which stated that constitutionality of provisions in the act which could stand independent of the labor and price-fixing sections could be determined in future actions.

This, McCarril ruled, meant the commission still has the power to carry out certain studies provided for by the act and to appear before the interstate commerce commission in cases involving the bituminous coal industry.

The commission now employs 160

persons.

Chairman Charles F. Hosford, Jr., said that study would be required to determine how many of these would be retained.

Investigate Deaths of Dogs at Ashton

The poisoning of several dogs in and near Ashton has resulted in an investigation being launched by the local sheriff's office following complaint by irate owners who came to Dixon to lodge their complaints. In Ashton, it was stated, a number of dogs, pets and some of good breeding, have been poisoned and southeast of Ashton in a mile square space, all but two dogs have been destroyed and one of these is blind and feeble and unable to run at large.

Valuable cattle dogs, household pets and hunting dogs have fallen prey to the dog poisoner who apparently has confined his activities to one certain section of Ashton and to a single neighborhood, one mile square, east of the city. Several owners have found the remains of their dogs, which have been poisoned, and at the direction of the sheriff, some of the animals have been subjected to post mortem examinations by veterinarians to determine the content of the stomachs.

Ashton Farmer Un-

covers Fox's Nest

Marcus Pletzing, farmer, living two and one-half miles northwest of Ashton has been missing several good sized pigs and his flock of ducks has been almost entirely depleted. Saturday, while planting corn in a field, he observed considerable activity in a clump of brush at a line fence and upon closer observation discovered several foxes playing about on a mound. The corn planting operation was suspended for the time being and Pletzing, going to the barn, obtained a shovel and returned to the scene. He dug out seven cub foxes, the parents of the litter having been absent when he made an unexpected call. In and about the den were the remains of several pigs and ample evidence that considerable poultry had been delivered to and consumed by the small foxes.

FOR P. O. ROBBERY.

Chicago.—Said by police to be wanted for a postoffice robbery at Pana, Ill. George Johnson, alias James Henderson, 36, was arrested in a south side hotel. Detective Sergt. James Coleman said Johnson was an ex-convict.

SEEK TO ADJUST TAX YIELDS TO F. D. R. ESTIMATE

President Asks Bill To Produce Income of $620,000,000

Washington, May 25.—(AP)—The senate finance committee wrestled inconclusively again today with the problem of bringing the yield of its tax bill in line with revenue requests of President Roosevelt.

Chairman Harrison (D-Miss) told reporters after a committee session behind closed doors:

"It would seem we are short on what we have done and we need some revenue. We are trying to get a meeting of minds on that, so that when we get a bill out it will at least raise the money."

Drastic Revision

The bill, as revised drastically by the committee, would produce an estimated $560,000,000 of additional permanent government income, whereas the president asked for $620,000,000.

"We have come to no definite conclusion about any part of the proposition," Harrison said.

He added that he believed it would be impossible to report the bill out this afternoon, but that he hoped to do so tomorrow.

Still to be decided were proposals for an excise tax on sugar and other levies on imported vegetable oil and starches.

The chairman said that the treasury estimated today that the "windfall" tax on processors who avoided payment of AAA processing taxes would, as revised by the committee, raise only $82,000,000 instead of $100,000,000.

WPA HAS ENOUGH MONEY TO KEEP ITS WORK GOING

Washington, May 25.—(AP)—A works progress administration spokesman said today that agency has sufficient funds to continue its program in Illinois and all other states until the new relief appropriation is available July 1.

Charles E. Miner, deputy state administrator for Illinois, had stated unless $10,000,000 requested by the state administrator, Robert J. Dunham, was made available, WPA projects in Illinois would cease during June.

The WPA spokesman said today there was no cause for concern in the Illinois situation; that ample funds to continue the projects until July 1 were on hand and would be made available.

The Illinois WPA has spent approximately $82,950,000. Its peak employment load was 202,000 in February. The WPA plans to furnish jobs for 157,900 persons in Illinois in July, the load having been steadily reduced.

Whether Dunham's specific request for $10,000,000 for June expenditures will be allowed was not known. The spokesman said, however, sufficient funds to carry on approved projects would undoubtedly be forthcoming as needed.

The state agency was allotted

$3,000,000 about two weeks ago.

Ford Company Has

$3,565,617 Profit

Boston, May 25.—(AP)—Based on the balance sheet of Dec. 31, 1935, Ford Motor Co. had an indicated 1935 profit of $3,565,617. It was disclosed today.

This profit was equivalent to $1.03 a share on the 3,452,900 shares of $5 par value. Indicated profit of $6,860,462 in 1934, equivalent to $1.98 a share, indicated loss of $3,480,311 in 1933; and indicated loss of $79,247,669 in 1932.

The balance sheet showed a profit and loss account of $582,977,651 as of Dec. 31, 1935, compared with $580,276,391 at the close of 1934.

The balance sheet, filed once a year with the Massachusetts commissioner of corporations, is the only statement published which gives any clue to the earnings of the Ford company, which is privately owned.

MUCH EXCITEMENT.

Chicago, May 25.—(AP)—At 2:45 A. M. A. L. Hardy started dialing for a doctor to assist the stork. At 3:02, unable to reach a doctor, he called the fire department. At 3:26 the impatient stork left a 5½ pound boy. At 3:38 a doctor appeared and said: "Mother and child doing nicely."

BONFIRE ON WHEELS.

Chicago, May 25.—(AP)—Sergt. Cornelius Cullinan blinked today at what he saw as he sat in a squad car in Jackson park. What he saw was a speeding automobile with the rear end in flames and the driving unaware of it.

Sergt. Cullinan set out in pursuit but when he caught up with the bonfire on wheels it had crashed into a safety island and overturned. Spectators said the driver stepped from the wreckage, unhurt, and walked away.

Lexington, Ky., May 25.—(AP)—

A blood transfusion was believed today to have saved the life of a two-year-old show horse at Mrs. M. F. Young's Spindletop farm.

Hemophilia developed after the colt underwent a minor operation and it was feared the animal would bleed to death. Enlisting the aid of two Lexington physicians, Dr. D. L. Proctor, veterinarian for the farm, gave the transfusions with blood from three Percheron mares. About six pints of blood were administered at each injection.

Dr. Proctor said that in his 19 years' practice it was the first case of hemophilia he has found in horses.

113 Illinois Towns

in Safety Contest

Springfield, Ill., May 25.—(AP)—The state division of highways today reported that 113 Illinois cities have entered the 1936 National Safety Council traffic contest.

All but nine of the 117 eligible cities of 5,000 or more population entered the 1935 contest, and of the nine exceptions, five have signed up this year, officials said.

Chief Highway Engineer Ernst Lieberman said the formation of local safety agencies would be stressed.

"The remarkable records made by those cities entered last year provide ample proof that the slaughter of human lives on our highways can be reduced by the awakening of citizens and officials to the necessity of concerted action," Lieberman declared.

CROOKE GIVEN LIFE.

Sycamore, Ill.—Convicted of slaying Mrs. Emma Ander at her DeKaib grocery store last March 5 after she refused to sell him some headache tablets, Harrison Crooke faced a life sentence recommended by a jury, Judge F. W. Shepherd said he would defer sentencing Crooke until he had heard arguments on a motion for a new trial.

Polo Man is Found

Dead in His Garden

(Telegraph Special Service.)
Polo, May 25.—George Sauer, a resident of Polo for over forty years, was found dead in the garden at his bee apiary on North Jefferson street at 9:30 o'clock this morning by Mrs. Charles Miller, victim of a sudden heart attack.

A jury impaneled by Coroner J. C. Akin of Forreston decided. Funeral services will be held at St. Mary's Catholic church in Oregon, in which city he was born March 13, 1864, at 9:30 o'clock Wednesday morning, with burial in an Oregon cemetery.

Mr. Sauer, who was married over forty years ago to Margaret Kenyon, who died two years ago, is survived by six sisters and three brothers.

EIGHT FATALITIES ON HIWAYS OVER WEEK END

Chicago, May 25.—(AP)—Street and highway crashes took at least eight lives in Illinois during the week-end, four in downstate areas and three in Chicago.

At Cairo, two men died in a triple collision. Robert Merritt, 29, Mounds, Ill., negro, was crushed to death when his car struck a truck, E. J. Walder, 24, Cairo bank clerk, was killed by a passing car as he helped remove Merritt's body from the wreckage.

Edward Green, 15, DeKalb, was thrown from a speeding car and killed when the driver, Herman Brunke, 14, lost control on a curve.

Ellene Deutschmann, 16, Belleville high school student, was killed when a car driven by Sergeant Joseph Bishop, attached to the Scott Field aviation unit, struck her bicycle.

The three Chicago victims were pedestrians struck by automobiles. Mrs. Lillian Kostka, 21, Chicago, was killed near Joliet today when the car in which she rode was struck by a truck driven by Clarence Johnson, Chatham, Ill., who was taken to the Will county jail after the crash.

OTHER WOMEN IN TALLMADGE LIFE WILL BE SOUGHT

Oregon, Ill., May 25.—(AP)—S. Donald Crowell, Ogle county state attorney, said a subpoena naming Mrs. Frances Birch, 30, as a material witness in the Guy Tallmadge slaying case would be served on her in Rock Island today.

Tallmadge, who confessed shooting his wife, Bessie, to death last Tuesday night, had hoped to marry Mrs. Birch and live with her on his chicken farm north of Rockford, Crowell said.

"I am taking this action to preclude any possibility of defense counsel spinning her away to prevent her testimony at Tallmadge's trial," Crowell said.

He indicated Mrs. Birch, comely widow who met Tallmadge while working in a Rockford drugstore, was not the only woman he considered as a possible "cure" for the "six years of hell" married life the accused man said in his confession was responsible for his act. At least two other names have been turned over to Rockford police officials for investigation.

Steel Manufacturer

Slashed Own Throat

Chicago, May 25.—(AP)—His throat slashed with a butcher knife, the body of Cecil Martin, 55, treasurer of the Worden-Allen Company, steel manufacturers, was found today in the bathroom of his home in suburban River Forest.

Sergt. James Donoghue, chief investigator of the coroner's office, said Martin apparently had committed suicide. Martin's wife, Frances, said her husband had been worried over financial matters.

The finding of the death weapon in the kitchen sink at first puzzled police but a maid said she picked up the knife and washed it during the excitement.

LET'S LAUGH
By Joseph Fort Newton

IN THE lovely Barrie play, "What Every Woman Knows," Maggie is trying to save her foolish husband from his entanglements and the failure which threatens to put an end to his political career.

At the critical moment she turns to him and says, "O John, if only you could laugh." He replies, "I can't laugh, Maggie." But as he continues to stare at her blankly, his face begins to crease into something between a smile and a frown. It is now or never, as she sees!

"Laugh, John, laugh! Watch me and see how easy it is!" A terrible struggle takes place within him and the issue swings in the balance; but before long John laughs and Maggie knows that he is saved.

If only our sad world could laugh loud and long, a lot of our problems would be solved. It is one thing to be serious, and another to be solemn. The ringing music of laughter would save us.

"I have lost all merriment," said Hamlet. That is what ails the world today—it is so sad that it is sour, and its sickening solemnity is a menace.

We need another old man Edwards, in the Boswell life of Johnson, who tells us that "he tried to be a philosopher, but cheerfulness would keep breaking in," spoiling all his melancholy musings.

Or better still, another poet to teach us "to spin the great wheel of earth about to the tune of laughter, song and shout." Real laughter, too, not the searing, ironical laughter of the defeated.

To be sure the times are upset and out of joint, but the world has often been upset before. It was not out of an idyllic age that Chaucer or Shakespeare or Bunyan lifted their manfully cheerful voices.

Dickens taught men to laugh in "the hungry forties." They were too robust to whine, much less to collapse in plaintive wails as we do in our day.

Our sour, dour, gloomy, grumpy spirit is out of time and tune.

Members of W.C.T.U. Are Encouraged

It is most heartening to the women who are giving much of their time, strength and income to forward the cause of abstinence to have the Methodist church reiterate its firm stand on the abolition of the liquor traffic, as was unequivocally pronounced in the Episcopal address of Bishop Edwin H. Hughes at the opening of the recent general conference. He said in part: "Those of us who lived in the period of the old-time saloon testify that the revived liquor trade has already outdone its former horrors. Bacchus is in our land again erecting his altars and summoning our citizenship to an orgy of human sacrifices."

We cannot too strongly denounce those who, tempted by unclear revenues, frame mischief by a law, or build a city with blood, or rent quarters for the sale of liquors, or give their names to evil petitions, or participate voluntarily in the incomes of iniquity. We warn all such that they may start in their souls a decline that will end only with the final crash of destruction.

We now proclaim to our country and to the world the intent of the Methodist Episcopal church to continue a relentless fight against the beverage liquor trade. The liquor traffic is inherently immoral. Legalizing it did not change its character. We reassert the slogan of our fathers' consciences and of our own:

Total abstinence for the individual; Prohibition for the state.—W. C. T. U.

HOOVER IS NOT A CANDIDATE

Herbert Hoover has decided that this is the right time to make the announcement that he is not a candidate for the republican nomination for the presidency and that he has not been a candidate.

Of course, he has not been a candidate. It has been said time and again in this column that talk of a Hoover candidacy was largely for the purpose of setting up something to knock down.

Grover Cleveland was the only man to receive a second nomination at the hands of his party after he had been in the White House and out for a term, but he was only 47 when he entered the White House and Hoover was 55. Cleveland was 55 when he undertook his second term.

We may talk all we please about possibilities of electing men up in their 60s, but we just don't do it.

The political procession passed on, leaving behind not only Mr. Hoover, but other able men.

Mr. Hoover said his friends were under strictest instructions not to organize for him anywhere, and the evidence supports his statement.

Except for political gossips who desired to keep the Hoover possibility to the fore by agitation, there was no particular call for any statement on the part of the former president. One of his friends described the situation correctly a year ago when he said that it would be futile for Mr. Hoover to deny his candidacy, for he would have to keep denying it month by month until the date of the convention. We all know that no matter how often a man may lay a ghost dragged out by gossips, nothing prevents it being dragged out again.

It was appropriate, with the republican national convention now only four weeks away, for Mr. Hoover to make his position clear, so that he need in no way be complicated with the issues.

It was worth while for him to add, as he did, that he is not opposed to any candidate now in the field. That ought to settle that.

PROTECTION TO THE FARMERS

John L. Lewis, czar of the coal industry, whines that the supreme court always rules against labor and for capital.

He ignores the fact that the Guffey law may have been a law for labor so far as he was concerned, but it was a law for capital so far as a large part of the coal capital was concerned, a price-fixing with immunity from anti-trust laws.

The Guffey law was a law for the coal industry as against the farmers. Increase in the cost of coal is the beginning of a pyramid of costs that always are passed on to the farmer, who can not pass them further.

The reason that Mr. Lewis finds the supreme court deciding against labor is that the labor leaders ever are attempting to get more and more of the national income for labor and to obtain it by legislation which means that it is taken away from the farmer. As long as they get it by the means normally used by organized labor, they are on a sound basis, but when they undertake to obtain it by use of the agencies of the government, then they are encroaching upon something that belongs equally to the farmer.

The constitution of the United States was made for the farmers as well as for the industrialists.

The Guffey law would merely have been an entering wedge had it been held constitutional. It was called the little NRA for the coal industry. There would have been an NRA for this and for that, when the court already had said such stuff was folderol in the light of the constitution and all nine of the members of the court so held.

As farmers well remember, the NRA got started ahead of the AAA and rapidly was nullifying any benefits that the AAA was to convey.

Of course the court does not hold for or against any particular group. It lays the law down by the constitution and determines whether or not it conforms to the specifications there set forth.

But if we are to define the action of the court in the terms used by Mr. Lewis, we must declare that the court held that the coal industry had no right to mulct the agriculturists by use of the machinery of the United States government.

THE OUT-OF-SORTS BORAH

Senator Borah should count ten before he permits himself to be interviewed these days.

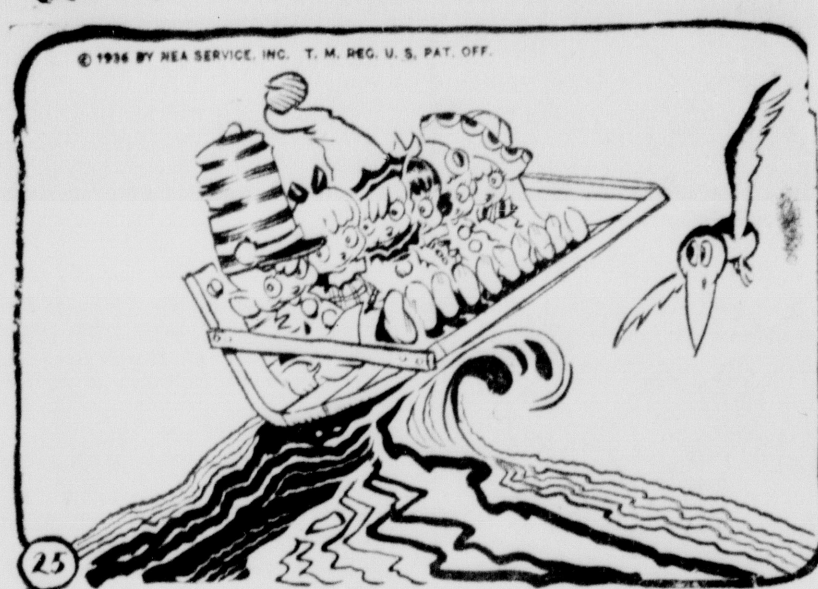

All the other men whose names are being used in connection with the republican presidential nomination are going about their business in good temper toward each other. They are turning their guns on the New Deal as a common enemy. They are saying, each for himself, "It doesn't matter what my fortune may be, the big issue in this country is a united march against socialism and the New Deal."

We wonder if Senator Borah realizes with what contrast he appears in the newspapers among republican candidates. He has been in public life long enough so that even though returns in early primaries did not show a popular uprising in his behalf, he should expect such setbacks, and should be prepared to take them philosophically and in good part. He might recall that his friend Hi Johnson of California started out in 1924 to see the people of the corn belt and of the plains and of the mountains rising to support him for the presidency against the then serving vice president, a myth in the White House, a Mr. Coolidge. But the people didn't rise in the corn belt and they didn't rise in the plains states, and they didn't rise in the mountains and when the California senator had proceeded that far west there was nothing left for him to do except to stay at home.

Men some times mistake wide advertising for popularity.

THE TIMY TINES

READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE

"Away we go, we know not where, and neither do we really care," said Copy. "This is heaps of fun, and we are safe and sound."

"I like to ride up in the breeze, just as we're doing, much at ease. As long as fate is kind, we will not topple to the ground."

"Say, that would make a dandy song, if with a tune it went along," said Goldy. "I will sing it once. Then you all can join in."

She put the words to music and the bunch agreed it sounded grand. "All right, now," Dotty shouted. "All together, let's begin!"

Then music seemed to fill the air. In fact it gave the birds a scare. They started dipping up and down. The Tines stopped their song.

"Hey, this is awful," Duncie cried. "Why must the four birds spoil our ride? I guess they didn't like our music. Now we are in wrong."

One of the birds said, "No you're not. We really thought your music hot, but we are getting set to let you drop down to the sea."

"If you will note, it's right below. With us no farther will you go." Poor Duncie shivered just a bit and shouted, "Woe is me!"

"Well, what's the reason, Mr. Bird?" said little Goldy. "I have heard of lots and lots of crazy stunts, but this is worst of all."

"Why can't you land us some-where near, where there'll not be a thing to fear? What fun will we get out of it, if you just let us fall?"

"Don't worry! You'll have fun, all right, so don't you fret about your plight," a bird said. Then the Tines dropped, and all began to rave.

They didn't know what thrill they'd meet, but they all hung onto the seat. In just about two moments they were riding on a wave.

"I insist on the respective positions of our two peoples in regard to today, x x x"

"In any case, let me assure the Americans that we in France shall spare no pains to maintain and to increase the friendship that must always be maintained between our peoples."

NEXT PREMIER OF FRANCE IS SEEKING HELP

Makes Radio Appeal to Americans to Maintain Friendship

Paris, May 25 — (AP) — Leon Blum, bidding for better American and British friendship, has decided to inaugurate personally the foreign policy of France's incoming "people's front" government, informed sources said.

The premier-designate, Socialist leader of the leftist bloc that comes to power in the new chamber of deputies next month, intends to head the French delegation to the June 16 session of the League of Nations council.

Informed sources said he would attempt to form a close Franco-British diplomatic front at the special meeting called in the Italo-Ethiopian controversy. He was expected to assign continuation of this work later to a foreign minister.

Blum, after conferring with diplomats on France's future foreign policy, addressed an appeal to the United States in a radio address for better understanding between the American and French peoples.

Appeal to States

"The task of the coming French government is to put into effect the pondered will of the majority of the French people. I submit that this French will is closely related to the will of the American people," he said.

After citing American adherence to democracy, efforts to overcome economic depression and opposition to war, Blum asked:

"May I not, in view of all this, conclude that what we are about to undertake deserves the attention—even the good will—of American opinion?"

Without "harking back to ancient memories," he avoided direct reference to France's defaulted war debt to America, but declared, "I insist on the respective positions of our two peoples in regard to today, x x x"

"In any case, let me assure the Americans that we in France shall spare no pains to maintain and to increase the friendship that must always be maintained between our peoples."

Alton, Ill., May 25.—(AP)—Henry Feldwisch, 65-year-old East Alton policeman, was in a serious condition here today from a bullet wound suffered, Police Chief Henry Obermiller said, when he attempted to enter the home of a former policeman to stop a family row.

Hugh McCain, member of the East Alton police force until his dismissal two years ago, was held in Madison county jail at Edwardsville after being named by Chief Obermiller as the one who fired the shot into the patrolman's abdomen.

Police said Feldwisch was called to the home after McCain had returned home late Saturday night and threatened to drive his wife, mother-in-law and brother-in-law from the house.

Obermiller quoted McCain as saying: "If he had done what I told him, I wouldn't have shot him."

Board of Education Tells of Need of More Revenue and New School Building

First of Series of Explanatory Articles Presented

This article and those that will follow have been prepared by the Board of Education to explain in detail the need for additional school revenue and for a grade school building to take the place of the E. C. Smith school, commonly known as the "Red Brick" school.

It is the desire of the Board of Education that the voters be fully informed upon all phases of the questions involved and if they will read these articles carefully it is believed that all questions relative to the need and the cost involved, both in total amounts and in terms of cost to the individual tax payer, will have been answered. Every voter is urged to read these articles carefully and to reserve opinion until the final article has appeared.

The three main objects included in the program are as follows:

1. To permit the abandonment of the E. C. Smith school and to replace it with a grade school building at the corner of Fourth street and Lincoln avenue.

2. To permit the employment of additional teachers to relieve overcrowded conditions of additional in classes both in the grades and high school; to employ a high school nurse, penmanship supervisor and assistant physical education instructors.

3. To restore to our teachers, clerks and janitors the pay they received in 1932.

There will first be shown the need for each of these three items, after which the cost of each will be shown and finally the cost to the individual tax payer will be shown.

Income for the operation of our grade and high schools is received from three main sources:

1. From the state distributive fund.

2. From tuition from high school students living outside our school district.

3. From local taxes.

In this district approximately 77 per cent of our total income is from local taxes. The income from the state distributive fund is fixed by law and cannot be increased or decreased by any action that can be taken by local communities. The tuition received from high school students living outside the school district is also fixed by law and cannot be changed. The total amount of operating expenses, including a reasonable amount of depreciation, is divided by the number of pupils in the high school and the district then receives this amount for each pupil residing outside the district. In District No. 170 the amount received for each non-resident high school pupil is approximately $107.00. There are a little over 200 of these pupils so that the total amount received from this source is approximately $20,000.00.

The total tax rate for the city of Dixon for the year 1935 assessment (which are the taxes now being paid) is $3.41. The school taxes amount to $1.37, or a little over 1-3rd of the total. The other items which make up the total rate are shown upon the table which accompanies each tax statement.

The assessed valuation of all of the property in this school district for the 1935 assessment is approximately $10,802,000, so that the district will receive approximately $144,500.00, this being the balance remaining after deducting delinquent taxes and the cost of collection. The $1.37 rate is divided into two funds which must be carefully separated. $1.00 is for teachers' salaries, supplies, fuel and miscellaneous operating expenses, and $0.37 must be used for the payment of bonds, interest, repairs, replacements and insurance on buildings. The total amount received from the building levy of $0.37 has been sufficient in the past to pay all bonds as they came due, together with interest on the unpaid principal and also to leave a sufficient balance for repairs and replacements. Recently the State Department at Springfield has issued regulations to the effect that insurance, janitor hire during the summer, and a number of other minor items must be charged to the building fund, so that as a result a levy of $0.37 will not produce a sufficient amount to pay all of these items that must be charged to the building fund even if expenses are kept within present limits. The result is that we must have authority to increase our building levy in order to pay the items that must be paid from the building fund. The two funds (building and educational) cannot be mixed, nor can transfers be made from one fund to the other.

The first point in the proposed plan is the abandonment of the "Red Brick" school and the construction of a new grade school at the corner of Fourth street and Lincoln avenue. This building was constructed in 1868-69. It is on a solid foundation and the masonry and brick work are in a fair state of preservation. However, the roof, window frames and the entire interior construction are in such condition that the Board of Education feels that the building is no longer safe for use as a school building without drastic alterations and repairs, the cost of which would run into many thousands of dollars. The entire interior construction of the building is of wood, the stairways are narrow, and lack of space makes it necessary to use the rooms on the third floor. Verification of these conditions is invited by an inspection of the building and roof by anyone interested.

In view of these conditions the Board feels that the responsibility of continuing the use of the building is more than it cares to assume, and it has accordingly decided that the question should be submitted to the voters of the district.

In addition to the above facts the location of the building is such that it is not advisable to spend a great amount of money in repairing or enlarging it. By far the majority of the pupils in the building come from the territory lying west of the Illinois Central railroad. A recent check revealed that there are 427 grade school pupils who reside in the territory south of Rock river and west of the railroad. Of this number 175 live west of Lincoln avenue. To this number there should be added 50 children of kindergarten age who are not able to attend kindergarten because of the long distance from their homes to the South Central school, which is the only building in which a kindergarten is conducted on the south side of the river.

The Truman school, which is located at Third street and Lincoln avenue, has two first and two second grades, one of which is held in a semi-basement room, which is probably a violation of the state law. In the Woodworth school, which is located at the corner of Nachusa avenue and Sixth street, there is a first, third and fourth grade. It will thus be seen that all pupils residing west of the railroad in the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades must go either to the "Red Brick" or South Central building. There are many pupils who live in the southwest portion of town who must go from a mile to a mile and a half to attend school. There are no facilities for having these children stay at the building during the noon hour and for many of them the distance is consequently a hardship.

As above stated, we know there are many children of kindergarten age in this territory whose parents are not able to send them to kindergarten because of the distance. Many people who live in this part of the city have no automobile, or if there is one in the family it is used by the parent who is working and is not available to take the children to and from school in bad weather.

MAN ON STREET CAN LEARN ALL STATE FINANCE

First Edition of New Book Has Been Exhausted

Springfield, Ill., May 25.—(AP)—

Abandoning involved balance statements and technical terms, the state of Illinois today sought to give "the man on the street" the story of its financial structure in a book of simple language and charts.

Entitled "The A B C of Illinois State Finance—Everybody's Business", the book was written by Finance Director K. L. Ames who said it was the "first attempt by a state to present a comprehensive account of its financing in terms anyone can understand." In less than a week, he said, the first edition of 10,000 copies has been exhausted.

In 135 pages, the book takes the "stockholder in one of the largest corporations doing business in this state" through every phase of the financial structure of Illinois. In nine chapters, it deals with:

Subjects Discussed
Sources of revenue, purpose of state expenditures, financing emergency unemployment relief, the procedure followed in disbursing state money, the structure of the state budget, state funds into which money is collected and from which they are paid, "the state as a borrower," and a summary of "the citizen's part."

For those who don't care to read the entire book, portions are suggested for "the reader who is interested only in the broad activities of state government and how they are financed."

Many of the charts showing collection and disposition of funds are representation of a coin, with portions marked for each expenditure or source. The state sales tax disbursement, for example, is explained in that manner.

"It is believed that the financial problems of the state can best be contemplated and described when viewed through the eyes of an average citizen and taxpayer who is trying to take an intelligent interest in public affairs," Ames explained. "We have tried to present the story so that it can be understood by the man on the street."

Plans for the summer will be outlined. All Scouts and committee members are asked to attend this regular session.

TROOPS 72 AND 67 ENJOYED ALL NIGHT CAMPING

Troop 110, Franklin Grove Also Joined Happy Group

Boys from Troops 72 and 67, Dixon, and Troop 110, Franklin Grove, under the leadership of Herbert Walker, assistant Scoutmaster of Troop 72, enjoyed an overnight hike to a spot north of Lowell park Friday night.

Eight boys were present from each troop and after pitching their tents spent on evening in fun and education, passing several tests and playing games. It is said that a practical first aid experience was presented to the boys to which they responded satisfactorily. Following breakfast Saturday morning and further enjoyment of the great outdoors the boys returned to town.

Lee Co. Camporee

Thirty-four boys attended the Lee Co. camporee at Archer's Grove near Franklin Grove, representing Troop 84, Steward, Troop 70, Paw Paw, Troop 65, Compton, and Troop 134, Rochelle, Friday and Saturday. Two patrols were present from Troop 65. After pitching their tents, the evening meal was prepared, followed by a program of stunts. Enos Keithley conducted a campfire ceremony. Appropriate fire-lighting ceremonies were followed, and a formal induction of Patrol 84, Steward, by A. A. Stocker, Scout executive. Songs and stunts were given after the ceremony.

Closed Program

D. C. Thompson, chairman of the committee for Troop 65, Compton, told Paul Bunyan stories and Enos Keithley assisted him. A campfire closed Friday night's program at which Scouts were inducted into Second Class rating. Patrol projects occupied the boys Saturday morning and the camporee was concluded by a flag lowering ceremony at 12:30 P. M. Saturday.

A meeting of Troop 89 was announced by Scoutmaster Kenneth Abbott for Tuesday night at which

After the first draw produced $956,880 for 432 American ticket holders Saturday—nearly 44 per cent of all winning tickets—the drum of fortune spun again in the mansion house today for drawing of the ten residual prizes and 1,200 cash prizes of £100 (500) each.

Americans who won residual prizes included: "Bobby" of (450 N. Division) Decatur, Ill.

In addition to the four Americans, residual prizes were won by five residents of Europe and one of South Africa. The residual and cash prizes drawn today go automatically to the holders of the winning tickets.

All holders of the tickets drawn against horses Saturday will receive £443 (about $2,215) whether the horse places, runs or is withdrawn from the derby Wednesday at Epsom Downs.

Thirty-two Americans held tickets drawn on the five top favorites for the race, Noble King, Taj Akbar, Boswell, Bala Hissar and Pay Up, with a possibility of winning $150,000 if their horse won, $75,000 for second or $50,000 for third place.

N. J. Congressman Died Early Today

Washington, May 25.—(AP)—Representative Randolph Perkins, 64, of New Jersey died at 7:30 A. M. today at Georgetown hospital.

A Republican, Perkins had represented the seventh New Jersey district since 1921.

Prior to coming to the house, Perkins served in the New Jersey legislature and was mayor of Westfield for two years. His home was at Woodcliff Lake, N. J.

Perkins underwent an operation for a kidney disorder 10 days ago, his office said, and appeared to be recovering until yesterday.

His widow is ill here with a heart ailment, but members of his staff said she planned to accompany the body to New Jersey tomorrow morning. Mrs. Perkins was the only member of his family in the city.

Policeman Poses in Garb of Avenging "Black Legion"

Wearing black hoods and gowns of the type shown here on a Detroit police officer, members of the Black Legion Society, patterned after the Ku Klux Klan, are said to have spread terror in the Michigan city in "avenging each act deemed un-American, Communist, or anti-social."

Beside the hooded officer are shown weapons alleged to have been taken by police from members. Sixteen alleged officers of the organization were arrested in the investigation of the slaying of Charles A. Poole, whose body was found in a ditch in Dearborn township, after he had been charged with beating his wife.

Atlantic City, N. J.—Executives of the country's leading gas companies, meeting here recently in the annual executive conference of the American Gas association, approved plans for a three year co-operative advertising campaign and urged local gas companies to back up this co-operative effort with strong newspaper advertising campaigns.

T. J. Strickler, vice-president of the Kansas City Gas company and chairman of the committee to conduct national advertising, recommended that in addition to the $500,000 annual co-operative advertising fund raised by the association, local companies should spend between two and three million dollars for newspaper advertising annually.

"There are today more than 450 manufactured and natural gas companies in this country, serving upwards of 16 million customers," Strickler said. "This huge market will be reached jointly by our co-operative advertising, plus the newspaper advertising of the individual gas companies in their respective territories."

Baby Smothered to Death in Automobile

Effingham, Ill., May 25.—(AP)—A 4-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Shelton, Mt. Vernon, Ind., was smothered to death near here yesterday as it lay asleep in the rear seat of an automobile with three other children.

Mrs. Shelton said an older child, also asleep, had rolled over on the baby and covered its face. A coroner's jury returned an accident verdict.

TOWNSEND CARAVAN MAY PASS THROUGH DIXON

Will Go To Rock Island From Rockford Some-time Wednesday

Chicago, May 25.—(AP)—Dr. Francis E. Townsend's old age pension organization concentrated its efforts in Chicago today after a week end hectic from Washington that left all of its offices there vacant.

The move combined the national headquarters with the central regional offices.

J. B. Kiefer, regional manager, denied the transfer had any connection with the congressional investigation of the Townsend movement. Dr. Townsend "took a walk" from the House committee's hearing last week and defied it to force him to return.

Kiefer said the move was made because the organization's national board decided it would be "more expedient and more economical to direct the work from a midwestern point," and because rents were too high in Washington.

Regimenting Public
The movement has no offices in Washington, he said, because "at present we are interested in regimenting the American public more so than making an impression on Congress." He said an office may be reopened in Washington later.

Kiefer said Dr. Townsend would be here "part of the time," but that the national office would be in charge of the three national officers, Gilmour Young, secretary; Harrison N. Hiles, business manager, and B. G. Rankine, treasurer.

The headquarters expected to have as its first day's guest members of the petition caravan, which is en route to the west coast from Washington. The motorcade was due this afternoon from South Bend, Ind. After a rally in Evansville, Ind., tonight, it will move on to Rockford, Ill., tomorrow and Rock Island, Ill., Wednesday.

Italy Will March Ahead Says Il Duce

Rome, May 25.—(AP)—Fascist Italy, under Premier Mussolini's orders, began marching "straight ahead" today, aiming at new triumphs—this time in the economic field.

Immediately after Il Duce's latest declaration, "we will march just as straight ahead in the future," the kingdom's guilds and credit institutes marshaled their resources for economic conquest of the empire already conquered by arms.

When Mussolini proclaimed, several weeks before the Italo-Ethiopian war started last Oct. 3, "we will march straight ahead," his phrase was interpreted universally to mean the East African conflict was inevitable.

His echoing of this phrase, however, during yesterday's celebration of the 21st anniversary of Italy's entry into the World War, was interpreted in well-informed circles as meaning not necessarily war but more probably economic and social development.

States Attorney of Crawford County is Tried for Accident

Lawrenceville, Ill., May 25.—(AP)—J. Stanley Bradbury, of Robinson, Crawford county States' Attorney, was scheduled to go on trial in Circuit Court here today, on a charge of manslaughter.

Bradbury was charged with manslaughter in an indictment returned by the Lawrence county grand jury, following an automobile accident north of here at 4:30 A. M. July 1, 1934 in which Charles A. Ress of Paris, Ill., was killed.

Testimony at the inquest indicated, it is charged, that Bradbury was parked on the pavement apparently asleep when the Paris car driven by Rudolph Glecker, accompanied by Ress, Mrs. Ress and Helen Ress, all of Paris, crashed into the rear of the parked automobile.

Glecker testified at the inquest he had failed to see the parked machine in time to avoid the collision, resulting in fatal injuries to Ress and serious injury to Mrs. Ress.

Judge Blaine Huffman, later overruled a motion to quash the indictment and denied a change of venue in the case.

NEW DEAL SEEKS NEW BIG STICK TO FORCE WILL

Senate Committee in Stubborn Mood in Regard Taxes

Washington, May 23.—(AP)—New Dealers began a last-ditch struggle today to equip the government with a big stick to force certain corporations to distribute large sums in dividends.

Now that the Senate finance committee has turned thumbs down on the proposal to levy stiff graduated taxes on undivided corporation income and has approved instead a comparatively lean tax of 7 per cent, administration men have concentrated on an effort to put "teeth" in existing penalties against corporations "improperly" accumulating surplus.

The present law provides that such corporations shall pay a tax of 25 per cent on the first $100,000 of net income and 35 per cent on all over $100,000. These levies are much stiffer than those on other corporations, which are taxed from 12 1/2 to 15 per cent on net income.

However, officials declare that the penalty taxes have never been easy to administer. The subjective question of motives enters into the problem, opening up a wide field for long legal arguments as to whether a corporation is or is not "improperly accumulating income."

Seek Ways and Means
As the Senate finance committee gathered today, the New Dealers planned a quest for ways and means of tightening up this section of the law.

Also remaining to be settled was the question of high penalty taxes on certain corporations which, some Senators contend, are used as tax avoidance devices by men who without them would pay high taxes on their personal incomes.

By forcing money out of corporations into the hands of stockholders, where it would be subject to both normal income taxes and surtaxes, the administration Senators hope to increase the estimated yield of the program which has been tentatively agreed upon, in other major details, by the Senate finance committee.

The new bill imposed an 18 per cent levy on corporation net income, a 7 per cent tax on undistributed corporation earnings, subjects dividends to the present 4 per cent normal income tax as well as the graduated surtaxes, and gives corporations making no more than $15,000 a year a $1,000 exemption from taxation.)

Vagrant's Estate May Total $60,000

Paterson, N. J., May 25.—(AP)—John Phillips, 70, and homeless, who had been arrested for vagrancy three times in two weeks, died leaving an estate valued by Detective Capt. James Smith at $60,000.

Smith said a sister, Mrs. Mary E. McCormick, was apparently his sole heir. Phillips died in the home of the Little Sisters of the Poor.

Smith said bank books found on Phillips at the time of his arrest showed cash balances of $11,347. Securities and other valuables found in safe deposit boxes thru Mrs. McCormick brought the total of Phillips' wealth to $60,000, Smith said.

Cookery News Notes Compiled By Lucile Harris

LARD FAVORITE SHORTENING
FOR ALL PASTRY

Pies as we know them today are no doubt an outgrowth of the old fashioned English Pot-Pie which was made of some type of biscuit mixture and filled with meat and gravy. The exact origin of the present day pastry isn't known. Some people feel it was gradually evolved from the biscuit dough, but no matter the origin lard has always been the favorite shortening for pies.

Women like lard because it is 100 per cent fat, which means that it has more shortening power for the amount used than any other plastic fat for cooking. Lard is easy to handle, a characteristic which women laud highly. It can be taken from the refrigerator and manipulated immediately for it never becomes hard and brittle and then again it can be handled almost as easily and well at room temperature.

Two Types of Pastry.
There are two different types of pastry, one is the hot water pastry and the more common type is the cold water pastry. Both can be made very successfully but are quite different in texture. The cold water crust, if properly made, has a flaky appearance and is very tender. The hot water crust should also be very tender but does not have the flaky appearance.

If you make pastries frequently, you may make as much hot water pastry as you intend to use during the week at one mixing and store it in your refrigerator and use from it as you desire. Never make more than can be used in a week's time, for even though it is covered tightly you'll find after a week the pastry becomes crusted and too dry to use. All you need to do is roll it out and bake it. You can also store the cold water pastry, but in that case it is better to add the cold water just before rolling.

It isn't necessary to confine yourself to making only pies, for there are a variety of ways to serve pastries, all of which are most attractive. Why not try some cheese sticks to serve with your soup or salad course or perhaps pastry shells for a creamed meat mixture? Or for dessert you might try some sort of fruit tarts just for a little spice.

Cold Water Pastry
1 1/2 cups flour
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup lard
4 to 6 tablespoons cold water
Cut lard into flour and salt until the crumbs are the size of dried peas. Add the water slowly, using just enough to make the dough hold together. Roll on a floured board.

Hot Water Pastry
1/2 cup boiling water
1 cup lard
3 cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon salt
Add water to lard and stir until creamy. Mix in sifted flour and salt. Chill thoroughly before using. This will make two large double crust pies.

The dough may be covered with wax paper and kept in the refrigerator to use another day.

Banana Bundles
6 bananas
Rich pastry
1/2 cup sugar
1 teaspoon cinnamon
Peel and cut the bananas in half crosswise. Roll in the sugar and cinnamon which have been thoroughly mixed. Place on a square of pie crust 1/4 inch thick and roll, completely enclosing the banana. Bake in a hot oven (450 degrees F.) for 15 to 20 minutes. Serve hot with whipped cream.

Pineapple and Raisin Meringue Pie
2 cups raisins
1 cup brown sugar
1 teaspoon salt
4 tablespoons flour
2 cups crushed pineapple
3 eggs

Cover raisins with water and boil until they are tender. Mix the sugar, salt and flour together and add. Let boil several minutes until thick, then add to the beaten egg yolks. Add the crushed pineapple. Cool and pour into a baked pie shell. Beat the egg whites with 6 tablespoons of granulated sugar until all the sugar is dissolved. Cover filling and bake meringue in a slow oven (300 degrees F.)

Deep-Dish Cranberry Pie
3 cups cranberries
1 cup water
1 1/2 cups sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt

Boil the cranberries in the water until they "pop." Add sugar and salt. Cool somewhat. Pour into a deep pie dish. Cover with a layer of lain pastry, fitting pastry firmly over edge of dish. (The pastry should be slashed to allow escape of steam.) Bake at 450 degrees F. for 15 minutes.

Cheese Sticks
Roll out pastry to 1/8 to 1/4 inch in thickness. Sprinkle one-half of the surface with grated cheese. Fold over, press edges together and roll out again to 1/4 inch thickness. Repeat two or three times. After the last rolling cut into strips about 4 inches long by 1/2 inch wide and bake in a hot oven, 400 degrees to 425 degrees F., until nicely browned.

FARM EQUIPMENT SALES.
Sales of farm equipment during 1936 exceeded 1935 figures by 20 per cent, H. D. Davis, director of research for the Farm Equipment Institute, said. The total will reach about $375,000,000, he estimated.

A movie of air waves taken in the wind tunnel at Langley Field, Va., shows the speed limit of airplanes of present design to be about 575 miles an hour.

DAILY HEALTH

CLOTHES FOR CHILDREN

This is the ideal in clothing children:

"A child should be clothed lightly, so that its activity is not hindered, but warmly enough so that its heat productive power is not overtaxed." Only rarely is this double aim achieved. Clothes follow the trend of style for children as for grown-ups. Style conformity may be of importance for the adult, but it merits only secondary consideration for the young.

The tendency is to overclothe children. They wear too many garments, generally too tightly fitted. This arises in general from the fact that children's clothes—especially boys—are patterned after those of adults. Girls seem to fare a little better, for their clothing is generally loose fitting and light weight. Girls' clothing changes very little in weight as the girls grow older, while boys' clothing increases in weight markedly.

A recent study reveals that girls between the ages of 12 and 15 wear clothing amounting to a little less than 2 per cent of their weight, in summer, and slightly over 2 1/2 per cent of their weight, in winter. Boys of the ages between 11 and 16 years wear, in summertime, clothing that weighs approximately 4 per cent of their body weight and slightly over 5 per cent in winter. There is no scientific warrant for dressing boys twice as heavily as girls. It is now commonly accepted that reduction of clothing gives one the benefits of exposure to sun and air. Not only does no harm result, but in a measure the child develops an increased immunity to those diseases commonly attributed to the influence of cold. The shedding of unnecessary boys' garments and lightening those which are worn is therefore advisable. The clothing should be the lightest that can be worn without the wearer being pinched with cold, or feeling the need of artificial heat when the weather is mild.

DON LASH AND OWENS SHINE FOR OLYMPICS

Negro Mercury Is Not Extended in Big Ten Meet

New York, May 25.—(AP)—The east and western seaboard, the extremes of the collegiate track and field world in more ways than one, set out this week to see what they can do about duplicating the feats already recorded by the stars of the mid-west and the south in their sectional college championships and semi-final Olympic trials.

So far it looks like a very good thing for the waning prestige of the eastern colleges that the big three California, South California, Stanford and the University of California, decided to remain at home this week. That trio has dominated the inter-collegiate A. A. A. meet for a dozen years and could be expected to triumph again this year if they hadn't scheduled the coast title meet for Friday and Saturday, when the I. C. 4-A meet will be held at Philadelphia.

While some of the weight tossers, such as Anton Kishon of Bates, and Irving Polwartshy and Bill Rowe of Rhode Island State, may surpass the feats of the far western and Big Ten aces, only a few runners and jumpers at Saturday's meet are likely to appear in the same class.

Big Ten Represented.
The Western conference meet last week-end produced no fewer than ten athletes whose feats entitled them to consideration as Olympic material while in the south Forest (Spec) Towns of Georgia, who had run the 120-yard high hurdles twice in the world record time of 14.1 seconds in the Southeastern conference meet the previous week, did it again to win the southern A. A. U. title.

Jesse Owens, Ohio State's Negro flash, stood out like an ink spot on a clean sheet of paper in the Big Ten meet. Without exerting himself unduly, he won his four specialties, the 100 and 220 yard dashes, the broad jump and the 220-yard low hurdles with creditable performances. His 220, around a curve in 21.1 seconds, clipped a tenth off the American record held by Ralph Metcalfe.

Don Lash, who led the Indiana team to victory by scoring ten of its 47 points, gave Owens a real run for the glory. He chopped big slices off the conference records for the mile and two miles with times of 4:10.8 and 9:19.9. Although his mile made him look like a formidable rival for Gene Venzke, Bill Bonthron, Glenn Cunningham and Joe Mangano, in the Olympic 1,500 meter trials, he is expected to concentrate on the 5,000 meter route.

Thomas Deckard and James Smith of Indiana also gave creditable double performances in the mile and two mile while Dan Caldemeyer, who fell in the high hurdles final, still is rated as a good prospect. Deckard is aiming at the Olympic 3,000 meters steeplechase and Smith at the 5,000 and 10,000 meter runs.

Tied World Record.
Bob Osgood of Michigan tied the accepted world record of 14.2 in winning the high hurdles at Columbus and Sam Stoller gave Owens a hot argument in the dashes. Charlie Betham of Ohio State shattered the conference record in winning the half mile, Ray Ellinwood of Chicago turned in a snappy quarter and Charles Penske of Wisconsin gave Lash an argument in the mile.

Big Jay Torrance, the world record 400-meter hurdler, and Glen (Slats) H. Jin, 400-meter hurdler record holder, won their events so handily at New Orleans they didn't have to perform outstanding feats but one newcomer broke into the limelight when Roland Romero of Loyola of New Orleans negotiated 50 feet, 4 inches in the hop, step and jump. All qualified for the final Olympic trials at New York in July.

FIFTEEN CITIES REPRESENTED AT GUN MATCH HERE

Winners Given Plane Rides Over Dixon on Sunday

The Dixon Rifle club's second annual indoor match was held Sunday at the Airport hangar where a number of experts from 15 northern Illinois cities assembled to fire the course for 22 caliber rifles. In the team events, Morrison took first place with 950 out of a possible 1,000 points. Rockford was second with 935 and Mt. Morris, third with 929. The fine weather served to attract an unusually large field of entrants in the several events. Members of the Dixon Rifle club while being hosts, did not compete in the matches.

A special airplane match was conducted in which the winners were given airplane rides over Dixon and vicinity. Wheeler of Belvidere won the first trip into the air and Barnhizer of Mt. Morris was the second aerial passenger.

Other scores made in the several events during the day were as follows:

100 yard outdoor re-entry match—Hornor, Freeport, first, 100x100; Paul, Mt. Morris, second, 99x100; 8x; Franklin, Mt. Morris, third 99x100-6x.

Ten shot off hand re-entry—Van Alstyne, Rockford, first, 95x100; Linder, Rockford, second, 91x100; Hornor, Freeport, third, 89x100.

Ten shot prone, 10 shot off hand entry—Fauble, LaMoille, first, 185x200; Lloyd, Dixon, second, 184x200; Wheeler, Belvidere, third, 184x200.

YANK BATTING MENACE TOP PLACE TEAM

Di Maggio, Lazzeri and Crosetti Are Dangerous

By Hugh S. Fullerton Jr.
Associated Press Sports Writer

It looks as if the Yankees will be hard to stop as long as Tony Lazzeri and Frank Crosetti continue to vie with Rookie Joe Di Maggio for the Italian vote of the New York fans and the honor of setting the pace of the revived "murderers row."

The colorful "De Mag" should have the credit, perhaps, for the Yanks' hitting revival which has kept them at the top of the American league standing but today the veteran Lazzeri is the hero everywhere from Mulberry Bend to Telegraph Hill.

Tony, putting to rest all reports he isn't as spry as he used to be, staged a hitting spree in Philadelphia which produced six home runs in two days and a new American league record for runs batted in during a single contest. Another odd record or two fell before Tony's bat as he led the Yanks to a double victory over the Athletics Saturday and the most one-sided triumph of the season, 25 to 2, yesterday.

Drives In 11 Runs

In Sunday's game, Lazzeri drove in eleven runs, hitting three homers—two with bases full—and a triple. That surpassed by two the old American league record held by Jimmie Foxx and fell just one short of Jim Bottomley's National league standard. The six homers in three consecutive games was one more than the mark held by Babe Ruth and several others while the record book fails to show any player hitting two homers with corners crammed in one game. To hold up their end of the argument, Crosetti smacked two homers and Di Maggio one. The Yanks hit eleven homers in two consecutive games for a new major league mark.

The week-end triumphs enabled the Yanks to increase their margin over Boston to 2½ games as the Red Sox absorbed a 4 to 12 drubbing from Washington yesterday. Jake Powell and 19-year-old Buddy Lewis led the attack on the gold-plated pitching staff, the former with two doubles, a triple and a single, the latter with a homer, triple and two singles.

One sided scores marked the entire program as the Cardinals and Giants kept pace in their duel for the National league lead. The only close game saw Chicago's White Sox turn back the St. Louis Browns 7 to 5 on Luke Sewell's homer in the ninth.

Cards Trim Cubs 7-1

The Cards, a half game ahead in the senior circuit, trimmed the Cubs 7 to 1. A crowd of 22,500, the largest at St. Louis this season, saw the effective combination of Roy Parmelee's five-hit flinging and a 17-hit attack that drove Curt Davis to cover in his first start for Chicago. The Giants, paced by Sam Leslie, who smacked a homer, triple, double and two singles in five trips to the plate, routed the Phillies 13 to 5.

The Cincinnati Reds went into a three-way tie with Chicago and Pittsburgh for third place by trouncing the Pirates 12 to 1 behind Al Hollingsworth's five-hit flinging. The Dodgers made 15 hits in support of Van Mungo, who trounced the Bees 11 to 2.

Lloyd Brown of Cleveland turned in the day's outstanding mound performance when he blanked the world champion Tigers with two hits to gain a 7 to 0 triumph. The Indians routed Schoolboy Rowe in two innings as Hal Trosky's ninth homer of the season featured their opening attack.

Japanese Track Team Is Empire's Best In History

Tokyo, May 25.—(AP)—The largest and strongest track and field team Japan has ever sent to the Olympics will represent Nippon at Berlin, the Japan track and field federation announced today. Forty met and six women were named to represent the island empire after the final tryouts here Saturday and Sunday.

Eleven jumpers and pole vaulters comprise the strongest section headed by Kenichi Ishima, world record holder for the hop, step and jump; Shuhei Nishida, pole vault star of the 1932 games, and Suyo Oye, who recently cleared 14 feet, 3 inches in the pole vault.

mately 119,000 fans through the ever said major league baseball was losing its grip on the fans? The crowds ranged from 26,200 at Boston, where the Senators trimmed the Red Sox, down to 7,604 for the Bees-Dodgers game at Brooklyn.

Fighting Dixon High's Track and Field Team Retains N. C. I. Crown

Fifth Year in Row Locals Have Kept the Championship

For the fifth consecutive year, Coach A. C. Bowers' fighting Dixon high school cinder team won the North Central Illinois conference trophy at the annual meet held at Northern State Teachers college, DeKalb, Saturday afternoon, the locals piling up 57 points.

Schools following in order of their position were Sterling, 37½ points, DeKalb 33, Rochelle 21, Belvidere 3 and Mendota 3. Taking only three firsts, the Purple and White barriers amassed their winning totals from ten second places, four third places and two fourth positions.

Old Records Discarded

Four old records were discarded on the scrap heap, Wheeler of Sterling making a new low hurdle record of 32.4 sec. and a new 120 yard high hurdle figure of 16 flat. The old record was set by Baldwin of Sterling in 1933 at 16.5 seconds. Harms of Rochelle tossed the shot 47 ft. 10 in. to better the 46 ft. 2½ in. toss of Praetz, Sterling, in 1933. The DeKalb relay team hung up the fourth new mark in 1:35.4 time as compared with their 1935 time of 1:35.6.

Unable to cope with DeKalb and Sterling in the dashes and hurdles, Dixon snatched first place in the pole vault, mile run, and high jump. Washburn vaulted 10 ft. 9 in. but failed to reach the 11 ft. mark reached by Beals of DeKalb in 1930. K. Nelson's scintillating mile run victory gave him a time of 4:57, Nelson running one of the best races in his prep career. Allow-ing two opposing runners to break the strong wind for him, Nelson sprinted down the final stretch in one of the prettiest finishes seen around these parts in years. Reis added Dixon's third place by leaping 5 ft. 5 in., five inches short of Strong's 1932 record.

Terwilliger Wins Dashes

In the 100 and 220 yard dashes Terwilliger hogged the show. Fleet as is Rube Thompson he was unable to even threaten the DeKalb flyer who ran two fine races in 19:2 and 22.9 times respectively. Terwilliger is the 1935 dash champion in the 100, making a 10 flat record at Champaign May 16. Wheeler captured hurdles honors over McMillion for Sterling, and Rochelle's Harms won his shot put and javelin events supported in the discus throw by a team mate Eckardt, giving Rochelle a corner on the field events. Harms' feeble 159 ft. javelin throw was far short of his Freeport performance and didn't approach Underwood's 170 ft. 2 in. figure set at Mendota in 1935.

Following is the summary of the entire classic:

100 yard dash—Terwilliger (DK), Thompson (D), Kelly (S), Fuller (DK), Time 19.1.

220 yard dash—Terwilliger (DK), Thompson (D), Sundberg (S), Vallee (S), Time 22.9.

440 yard dash—Riley (DK), Stibel (D), Miller (S), Bain (R), Time 53.4.

880 yard run—Gildon (S), Jen-

Sterling Defeats First Dual Match D. H. S. Tennis Team

Tennis men of Dixon high school venturing onto the court for their first interscholastic match this spring took a 4 to 0 lacing from Sterling Township high school's netters at Sterling over the week end.

Playing without the services of Russ Brown and Bob Evans the locals dropped every set but one in a doubles match. Sterling plans a return match on the Dixon high courts before the N. C. I. conference meet which is planned for Memorial Day, Saturday, May 30 in Dixon.

Following are the scores of the Dixon-Sterling dual match:

Singles

Myers (S) defeated Marshall (D), 6-1, 6-1.
Puckett (S) defeated Dasebach (D), 6-3, 6-0.

Doubles

Shot put—Harms (R), Krug (D), Rebeck (D), Hussong (S). Distance 47 ft. 10 in.

High jump—Reis (D), Seagren (S), Faber (M), and Hansen (D) all tied for second. Height 5 ft. 5 in.

Broad jump—Sundberg (S), Fuller (DK), Wetter (D), Edwards (DK). Distance 19 ft. 11½ in.

Discus throw—Eckhardt (R), Krug (D), L. Miller (D), Taber (S). Distance 113 ft. 4 in.

Javelin throw—Harms (R), D. Miller (D), Reed (B), Ridolph (DK). Distance 159 ft.

North Central's Track Team Wins First Loop Title

Normal, Ill., May 25.—(AP)—Lloyd Seibert and his teammates on the North Central track and field team had carved themselves a large slice of athletic glory for their school today.

North Central Saturday won the Illinois interscholastic conference track and field championship for the first time in the event's 17-year history. North Central scored 45 points to the 39 garnered by the second place school, Northern State Teachers of DeKalb, defending titleholder.

Seibert's performance in winning both the broad jump and pole vault provided not only the margin of victory but also won him the trophy for the meet's most outstanding performance. In the vault he set a new conference record of 13 feet ½ inch.

North Central took five firsts. Illinois Wesleyan, with three firsts, scored 33 points to tie for third with State Normal.

Illinois College Holds Golf Honors

Normal, Ill., May 25.—(AP)—Golfing honors for the Illinois Intercollegiate conference for 1936 rested largely with Illinois College today.

Joe Doyle, of Illinois College, won the individual championship Saturday with a sub-par 74-72-146 performance over the tricky par 74 Maplewood Country club course. His school tied for the team title with Knox, each school having aggregate scores of 473.

Durwood Boone, the defending individual champion, finished in a tie for second place with Bob Hill of Bradley, each having medals of 151. Illinois Wesleyan and State Normal tied for third in team honors with scores of 496. Bradley had 502, Eastern Teachers 512, Western Teachers 516 and St. Viator 528.

HAWKEYES PLAY MICHIGAN TEAM FOR BALL TITLE

Illinois Stands An Outside Chance to Snatch Honors

Chicago, May 25.—(AP)—Iowa's Hawkeyes and Michigan's Wolverines will stage a doubleheader battle for the Western conference baseball championship two weeks hence to which the University of Illinois will be a keenly interested spectator.

The Illini finished their schedule with a standing of 10 games won and two lost. Michigan and Iowa, each with eight won and one lost, tangle at Ann Arbor June 5 and June 6. A sweep for either team would give it undisputed possession of the Big Ten crown. A split would hand the championship to Illinois by a percentage of 833.

Play over the week end was featured by Iowa's rough treatment of the championship Minnesota Gophers. The title holders dropped two games to the Hawkeyes to go skidding out of the championship picture with a standing of six victories and three losses with two games to play.

Conference standings:

	W.	L.	Pct.
Michigan	8	1	.889

Drivers Battle For Remaining Race Positions

Indianapolis, May 25.—(AP)—Qualification trials for the 500 mile automobile race to be run here Saturday went into the final stages today with almost a score of drivers fighting for the eight remaining spots in the starting lineup.

Rain stopped all qualifying spins yesterday but several of the drivers expect to make their runs today.

Although most of the "big name" drivers already have qualified several, including Louis Meyer of Huntington, Calif., twice winner of the race; Deacon Litz of Dubois, Pa.; Mauri Rose of Dayton, O.; and Fred Frame of Los Angeles, another previous winner, have yet to win their places among the starters.

Only thirty-three cars can start the race and if more than that number qualify the cards with the slowest qualifying times will be eliminated.

Sixteen drivers qualified a week ago Saturday and Sunday and nine more made the grade last Saturday.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

IN EAST LIBERTY, PENNA.; SOME YEARS AGO, THERE WAS AN ORIOLE WHOSE SONG WENT, "TA RA-RA, BOOM DE-AVE," EXACTLY IN TUNE WITH THE FAMOUS SONG OF THOSE SAME WORDS.

A BASEBALL PITCHER COULD THROW NO CURVES, IF HE LIVED ON THE MOON! THERE WOULD BE NO AIR RESISTANCE TO GIVE A BREAK TO THE BALL.

THE AMAZON DISCHARGES ABOUT 5,000,000 CUBIC FEET OF WATER INTO THE ATLANTIC EVERY SECOND!

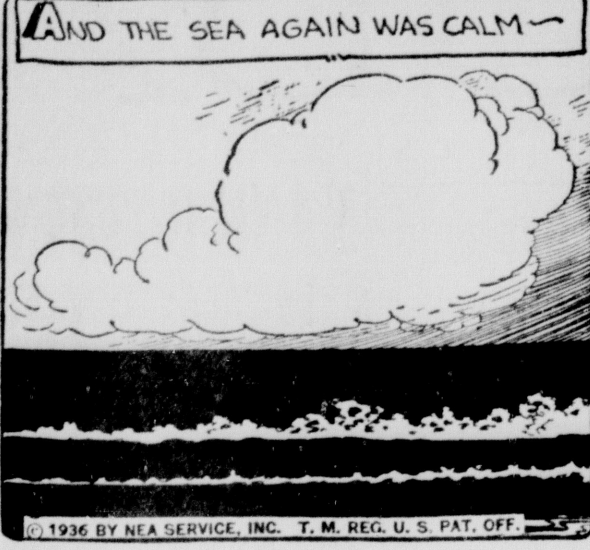

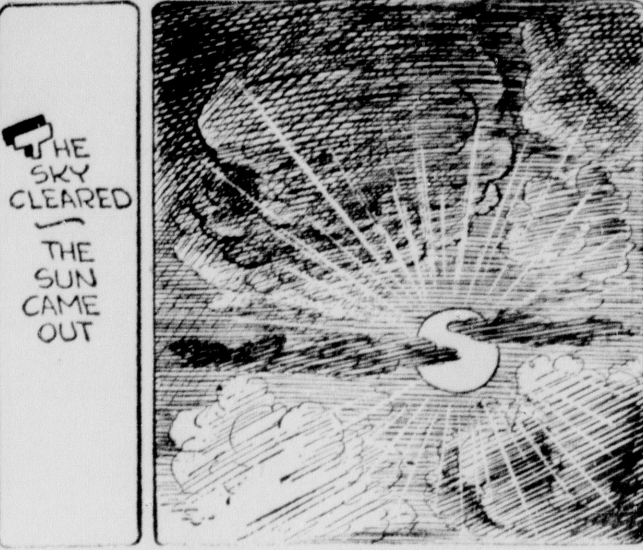

SINCE there is no atmosphere on the moon, there would be no friction such as is set up when a ball is thrown through air. However, a baseball pitcher, deprived of his ability to throw curves, would have the satisfaction of knowing that, due to the lessened gravity pull there, his infielders would be able to leap twenty feet off the ground to spear line drives.

ANGLO-RUSSIAN NAVAL PACT IS NOW DISCUSSED

Soviet Government Insists Limitations Must Affect Japs

London, May 25—(AP)—Great Britain and Russia proceeded to a discussion of fundamental issues in their negotiations for a naval agreement today, just after Moscow announced any London limitations of the Soviet Far Eastern fleet must also bind Japan.

One of the principal problems was raised, an authoritative source said, by the Soviet Union's desire to divide its naval undertakings into two spheres—the far eastern and the European. The British preferred to treat the Soviet fleet
as one unit.

The program for the conversations was settled in a preliminary exchange of views at the first meeting of the conferees last Wednesday, designed to make clear the Soviet attitude toward the London naval treaty between Britain, the United States and France.

The second sessio was called for this afternoon at the foreign office, to get down to essentials in the movement for an Anglo-Russian accord to bring the Soviet Union within the limits of the tri-power London treaty.

British Invitation.
The conversations arose from a London invitation to Moscow to discuss an agreement for restriction on sizes of individual types of warships and an exchange of information on naval construction in line with the new London treaty.

The Soviet government organ Izvestia declared in Moscow yesterday Russia could not consider an eastern fleet limitation as long as no similar agreement restricted Japan, and therefore the London negotiations could involve only European armaments.

This official statement, under the name of the authoritative spokesman Karl Radek, asserted Russia was attempting to achieve a separate agreement with Japan—thus far, fruitlessly.

Informed London sources said
the Soviet insistence on two independent fleets, capable of confronting those of Japan and Germany, might cause difficulties in British negotiations to bring the third reign also into the London naval accord.

RIFT IN STATE DEMOCRAT RANKS STILL UNHEALED

Warring Factions Will Stay at Different
Hotels in Phila.

Chicago, May 25—(AP)—The two warring factions of Illinois Democrats were still trading scowls today as they laid their plans to journey to the national convention in the City of Brotherly Love.

Gov. Henry Horner's wing of the party and the Nash-Kelly Chicago organization will, under present plans, travel eastward separately and make their headquarters in different hotels.

No peacemaker had saved the Horner men's anger at the boeing given Gov. Horner from the Chicago delegation, at the party's state convention.

Another wedge Democratic leaders said was keeping the rift open was the governor's failure to disband the Democratic organization
he set up in Chicago in competition with the Nash-Kelly group, when they were battling each other in the hard-fought Illinois primary.

Until the convention, when Mayor Edward J. Kelly of Chicago and the governor met on the platform
but did not speak, it had been expected that there would be no fight over the job of national committeeman.

Nash Candidate

The veteran P. A. "Pat" Nash of Chicago is an avowed candidate for re-election to the post.
It was assumed he had the governor's blessing, in spite of the primary warfare, when Horner men voted along with the others to

Tacks No Terror to This Auto

Jerusalem is showing real ingenuity in meeting its newest traffic hazard. In the general strike which the Palestine Arabs are staging in their demand that Jewish immigration be halted, tacks have been scattered in all the principal streets of the ancient city, to halt traffic. Here is shown an auto equipped to overcome this obstacle. Brooms have been placed in front of the wheels to sweep up the tacks as the car moves along and the laughing crowd beside the machine seems to be confident that the innovation will work.

endorse Nash, at a recent meeting of the Cook county central committee.

Since, however, some of the militant Horner supporters have been clamoring for an attempt to oust the committeeman. In the Nash-Kelly trenches, Nash's lieutenants scoff at the idea such a move could succeed, claiming they have and can hold a majority of the 58-man delegation.

An estimate of the two factions comparative voting strength, in delegates, is that governor has 27½ votes and the Nash-Kelly group has 30 3-4. The quarter votes are those of delegates at large, with 32 of them casting, among them, 8 votes.

EASTERN ROADS GO TO COURTS TO KEEP RATES

New York, May 25—(AP)—
Twenty-three eastern railroads have filed federal suit to enjoin
the interstate commerce commission from enforcing orders establishing new rates of 2 cents a mile for coach and 3 cents for Pullman cars.

The lower rates were ordered by the commission February 28 last to become effective June 2.

In the suit the companies said
the present basic fares of 3.6 cents
a mile for Pullman and coaches, with an additional Pullman surcharge, are still "just and reasonable" and should be maintained.

The companies contended the commission has no legal authority to enforce the new rates, that the new rates are "less than compensatory," that lower rates would prevent the railroad from meeting competition of other means of transportation, and that there is no warrant for reductions at this time.

The companies also maintained that section 15 A (8) of the interstate commerce act, if interpreted to support the commission's rulings, would constitute a violation of the fifth amendment to the constitution in that it would take away the railroads' property without due process of law.

Further, it contended, the commission's orders are "arbitrary and capricious" and based upon a hope and speculation of the commission that its judgment will prove "to be superior to that of responsible railroad managers."

ator, has one dark secret: he never behind his animated cartoon char-

The GLAMOROUS ADVENTURE

by Jean Seivwright

© 1936 NEA Service, Inc.

BEGIN HERE TODAY
GAIL EVERETT, winner of the John S. Lane, costume design prize, comes to New York to find work. Gail's parents are both dead. She has spent the past three years at MISS CRANSTON'S fashionable school for girls—due to Miss Cranston's generosity and friendship for Gail's mother.

Armed with a letter from Larner, Gail goes to his office and is told he is out of town. DEREK HARGREAVES, an artist, over-hears this conversation and offers to help Gail. He advises her to go to MADAME LIZETTE'S shop
to apply for a job.

Gail arrives there just after temperamental Madame Lizette has learned her designer has gone to Hollywood. Gail gets the job and is told to report for work next morning.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER IV

THE subdued tinkle of the telephone on her bedside table awoke Gail next morning. Still half asleep, she reached for the receiver, and heard a crisp young voice announce, "It's 7 o'clock!"

"Thanks," answered Gail, mechanically placing the receiver in its cradle again. She'd quite forgotten she had left word at the desk to be called.

The sun was shining brightly,
and already the unfamiliar noises
of the city were drifting into her room. There was the screech of the elevated as its serpentine train swung around a curve, the throbbing of innumerable motors
as a never-ending stream of cars swept along the street. Hundreds of men and women were already on their way to work.

Gail breakfasted alone, for she was not yet acquainted with any of the young business women who comprised the population of the tall clubhouse. At the tables around her little groups of girls were coming and going, pausing here and there to call a greeting to new arrivals or wave gaily to others in more secluded corners of the large dining room. Gail felt thrilled. The atmosphere was so buoyant. Surely romance and adventure were in the very air.

She rose from the table but as she neared the door she came face to face with a girl whose vivid green eyes and dusky hair immediately set her apart from all the others. She gave Gail a friendly good-morning, but a cool stare which undoubtedly she would have resented from a less intriguing character.

"Wonder who Natalie's gunning for this morning?" sniggered a rather petite blond to the girl beside her who carelessly shrugged her shoulders as the green-eyed girl passed.

But had Gail not been in such a hurry to leave she might have heard the blond girl exclaim, as her eyes still followed Natalie,
"She's looking us over again to see if there's any newcomer worth getting acquainted with."

GAIL sniffed the air as she stepped into the street. Although there was no fragrance of flowers around her, and she missed the sweetness of growing things, it felt fresh.

She walked quickly, amazed to see so many people on the streets
so early in the day. Then, catching sight of a mail box, she crossed the street and dropped a letter into it. She noted the time of collection before she hurried on, her lips parted in a smile. Had Derek Hargreaves really wanted to know the result of her search for work, or was it only politeness that had prompted him to ask her to let him know how she had made out?

Gail was still smiling as she stepped down to the basement court where the employees' entrance to Madame Lizette's shop was located. Something seemed to tell her she would see Derek again.

"'Tis the wrong entrance you'll be coming to here, young lady," exclaimed Pat Murphy, the porter. "Sure, 'tis only the employees that do go in at this door."
"Well, I'm one of them," Gail answered gaily.

"Begorra, then, 'tis my mistake, though it's a lady you be!"
and he flung the door open for her.

Down the dark passage Gail followed the other workers into a small dressing room which was crowded with lockers. She looked around. It was bedlam in the closely packed room where girls were changing their shoes, combing their hair, adding another touch of lipstick, and calling back and forth to each other, until suddenly, some one said, "Shush!" as Miss Caroline entered.

"Miss Everett," she called,
"here's the key for your locker.
Use 57," she added as G

SKINNER-STONE CONTEST COMES UP NEXT MONDAY

Princeton Democrat is Opposing Present Republican Justice

Springfield, Ill., May 25—(AP)—Democrats in the Peoria district will attempt to defeat the only Republican justice of the Illinois Supreme Court at a judicial election June 1.

Chief Justice Clyde E. Stone of Peoria, who has been on the supreme bench for 18 years, comes up for re-election.

Against Stone, the Democrats have nominated J. T. Skinner of Bureau county.

The judicial election, marked by only the one contest, will be held a week from today in the ten counties of the Fifth Supreme Court district—Peoria, Knox, Henry, Bureau, Stark, Putnam, Marshall, LaSalle, Grundy and Woodford.

Comparatively light voting is the

Wanted Liberty: Now Spurns It

Though his Liberal party long has demanded independence for Puerto Rico, Antonio Barcelo, above, flew to Washington to protest freedom of the territory under the terms of Senator Tamm's recently proposed bill. The measure, under which liberated Puerto Ricans would pay full duty on their exports to America, would ruin the islanders, Liberal party leaders said recently.

rule in judicial elections. The result will be closely watched by politicians, however, for indications as to the trend of sentiment in advance of the November campaign.

Regardless of the outcome of the Skinner-Stone contest, the next Chief Justice of the Supreme Court will be Lott R. Herrick of Farmer City. One of the five justices elected in 1933, Herrick was prevented from assuming the head place on the supreme bench a year ago because of a technicality in the court's rules.

The chief justiceship rotates each year. The term of office for each justice is nine years.

Barring vacancies, another Supreme Court Justice won't be elected until 1939, when the term of Warren H. Orr of Rock Island expires.

The Democrats took over majority control of the Supreme Court in the 1933 election, when circuit judges were named for six-year terms.

Five Supreme Court Justices were elected in 1933. The only Republican winning then was the late Frederic R. DeYoung of Chicago. That vacancy was filled a year ago with the election of Francis B. Wilson, Chicago Democrat, to complete the term.

In addition to Herrick and Wilson, the justices whose terms expire in 1942 are Paul Farthing of Belleville, Norman L. Jones of Carrollton and Elwyn R. Shaw of Freeport.

FARMERS WILL FIGHT

Chicago—Edward A. O'Neal, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, said organized farmers "would resist any attempts to take from the U. S. department of agriculture duties, functions and administrations properly vested in it."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Soul and Body" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 24.

The Golden Text was, "Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul" (1 Peter 2:11).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "O bless our God, ye people, and make the voice of his praise to be heard: Which holdeth our soul in life, and suffereth not our feet to be moved" (Psalms 66:8, 9).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science Textbook: "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Soul is the substance, Life, and intelligence of man, which is individualized, but not in matter. Soul can never reflect anything inferior to Spirit" (p. 477).

Uniforms of Guides at New Salem Park will be of Period

Springfield, Ill., May 25.—(AP)—Visitors to New Salem state park this summer may rub their eyes in wonder when they are greeted by men whose clothes and manners are characteristic of a century ago. They will be the four guides for the restored historic village where Abraham Lincoln spent a year as a clerk in a store, Robert Kingery, state director of public works and buildings, said today.

The guides will wear hickory shirts, homespun jeans and rough shoes to represent residents of the village. Kingery said that whether the guides will wear beards had not been determined.

Edward Arnold began his motion picture career at the age of 42. He was a Broadway favorite for many years before coming to Hollywood.
